London, Jan. 18. - The Stobcross Rivet Works at Coatbridge in Lanark shire, the largest in the United Kingdom have been completely destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated Fashion states that King Edward recently appeared in a frock coat with velvet cuffs. This has induced bundreds of London's weldressed men to order coats of the s me description. The cuffs are three inches deep and are turned up from i side the sleeves.

Cecil Rnodes has secured contracts amounting to several million pounds sterling, for supplying South Africa especially the British troops in that part of the world, with fresh meat, which will be taken to South Africa in refrigerator vessels from British colonies and elsewhere.

Mr. R odes' fliends admit that one or his monives for so doing emanates rom long standing differences which have existed between himself and the head of one of the South African cold storage concerns, which, at present, practically controls the fresh meat trade at South Africa.

At a meeting of the Court of the Common Council of the City Corpora-tion it was agreed, amid loud cheers, to present an address in a gold casket to Mr. Jo-eph Chamberlain.

The British steamer Braemer Castle, from Capetown for Southampton, which a randed on Gurnard ledge, I le of Wight, on Jan. 14, has been floated.

They do say King Edward is lying awake nights trying to think what he can do to match the Kaiser's yacht christening and Prince Henry's visit to America. It is up to England to pay the administration compliments.

In spite of numerous warning reports in both British and American papers, the gold brick swindler seems to be operati g largely in England. Persons of high social rank have been approached through the mails, in some cases with success. In one case a gentleman paid between $10,000 and $15 000 for two gold bicks of the kind so familiar to American farmers, which he went all the way to New York to get.

The municipal elections in Cork have resulted in the defeat of Eugene Crean, M. P., for the southeast division of Cork, ex-Mayor Roche and other nominees of the United Irish leasue. This is attributed to a speech made by Mr. Crean in the course of the campaign in which he declared that if King Edward came to Cork for the purp se of opening the inter-national exhibition he would be to ited through the city.
